The New House Country Hotel

*The New House is a serene country house, originally built in the 1730s.
Yet it's just a short hop to the centre of Cardiff – a tranquil rural location, right on the edge of town.*

Its elegance and stunning rural views across the city to north Devon offer a wonderful backdrop for any wedding day.

Make Your Big Day a Bright One

The generous picture windows of New House mean it's always a bright, airy, welcoming place, even when the weather has other plans.

Our three wedding rooms each offer something a little different, so you have some wonderful options for the big day.

The Garden Marquee

Set against a woodland backdrop, our elegantly draped marquee is located at the top of a winding flight of steps: once you reach the top you're rewarded with the best views across Cardiff and North Devon that we know of.

Seating up to 200 guests, with its own bar and patio, it's stylish, self-contained, and extremely versatile.

The Wyndham Suite

The Wyndham Suite is a contemporary room with wonderful views and neutral décor that means you really can do your own thing: it's fabulous if you want to make your big day truly individual.

It also has its own patio and bar, so your party is completely secluded, for up to 180 guests.

Our Glass Pergola

If an intimate celebration with added dazzle is your thing, our new glass pergola could be just the ticket. With room for up to 60 guests, it offers astounding views and a retractable roof.

This is being outdoors at its best – offering the potential to enjoy a beautiful day, whatever the weather. The outdoors, indoors.

Food & Drink

We're lucky to be located somewhere that's rich in seasonal produce and our kitchen team make the most of it.

We're proud to offer delicious plates that match the charm and originality of our venue and look forward to helping you choose the menu for your big day.

After Dark

The New House loses none of its charm as the sun goes down.

Whether your idea of a good party is a gorgeous, intimate supper with those sharing your special day, or dancing the night away under the stars, we'll help you celebrate, whatever your style.

Sweet Dreams

The time before and after your wedding is precious – it's all part of the memory of your big day. So, our accommodation is as comfy and elegant as you'd expect.

From getting ready on the day to waking up the morning after, our individually designed rooms and suites each have lovely quirks and qualities you'll never forget.

Your Wedding Team

We adore weddings: that's why we do them professionally.

Between us, we have years of experience, an excellent 'little black book' of contacts to make your creative ideas a reality, and an enviable track record for planning and detail. We'd love to help you with your big day.
